Michigan NOW Announces 2011 Endorsements

The Michigan National Organization for Women has endorsed the following three candidates for elective office:

- Dan Martin for Ferndale City Council;
- Paula Zelenko for Mayor of Burton; and
- Timothy Greimel running in the special election for the Michigan House of Representatives, 29th District, to fill the seat vacated by former Rep. Tim Melton (D-Auburn Hills).

“Each of these candidates requested our PAC’s endorsement,” stated Bobbie Walton, Michigan NOW’s President and President of its PAC, “and each brings commitment to their communities through years of public service. They will also bring progressive problem-solving ideas to the job of elected leadership and we believe each of these communities will be served well by their experience and skills.”

Others wishing Michigan NOW PAC’s endorsement may visit: www.michnow.org/pac to fill out and submit a candidate questionnaire and may inquire further at: admin-pac@michnow.org.

Michigan NOW is the largest multi-issue women’s rights organization in Michigan. Those wishing to join Michigan NOW and donate to its PAC may visit the same secure website to join and donate.
