MICHIGAN NOW AND MICHIGAN NOW FOUNDATION LEADERSHIP CHANGE
NOW Activists Meet at 2015 State Conference

NOW activists from throughout Michigan gathered in Dearborn on May 30th for the annual Michigan NOW conference. The Michigan Chapter of the National Organization for Women (NOW) is pleased to announce that our members elected the following officers to lead our state for the next two years:

Danielle Troia (Farmington), President
Nina Muckenthaler (Davison), Administrative Vice-President
Christina Soliz (Detroit), Legislative Vice-President
Danielle Vilella (Grand Rapids), Action Vice-President
Kathy Fojtik Stroud (Ann Arbor), Membership Vice-President
Bobbie Walton (Davison), Treasurer
Kathleen Law (Gibraltar), Secretary

President Troia stated that the new board is a “group of talented and dedicated individuals who are ready to work together to improve the lives of women and girls in Michigan.”

Michigan NOW thanks departing board members Renee Beeker (Milford) and Mary Pollock (East Lansing) for their years of dedicated service.

NOW is the largest multi-issue feminist advocacy group in the United States.
